Files in AirSend

Any file that you add to an AirSend channel is shared with all members of the channel; members can view, edit, and download any file in the channel.

In this section:

You can also go directly to Files view in AirSend to add and organize files in your channels. This view exists outside of channels, and lets you work with files in multiple channels in one place.