 - My Files
 - Shared Channels

Accessing Files view

1. Open AirSend.
2. In the upper left corner, click the triple-bar icon.

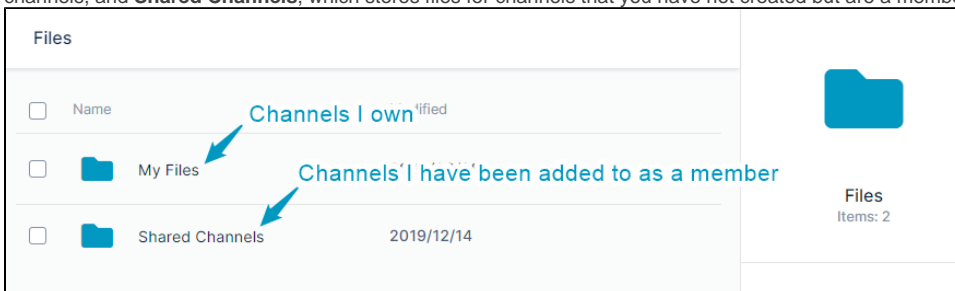

The side navigation panel opens:

3. Click Files.

Files view opens. It displays the folders My Files, which stores files for channels that you have created and files that you are storing outside channels, and Shared Channels, which stores files for channels that you have not created but are a member of.

My Files

Click the My Files folder to view folders for each channel that you have created, a folder for files that you have deleted, and any files or folders that you have added to My Files directly in this screen, outside of any channels.

The files folder and wiki folder correspond to the Files tab and Wiki tab in the right-panel of an opened channel. Files added in the files folder here or the Files tab in the channel are accessible in both places. Likewise, any files added in the wiki folder here or in the Wiki tab in the channel are accessible in both places. Any file or folder that you delete in a channel automatically appears in the deleted items folder.

To add, move, upload and delete files and folders from My Folders, see Managing files and folders in Files view

Shared Channels

Click the Shared Channels folder to view folders for each channel that you have been added to by another user.
