

Log Settings

Recent Activity

Shows you recent activity and events affecting Tonido software under various categories.

Log Level

Allows you to change the Tonido level of debugging information written to the log files. This is useful when debugging a problem or issue. Normal log level is "information".

Download Log File

Allows you to download the Tonido log file that contains debugging information useful to troubleshoot problems.